Portland Materials Transparency
Collaborative (PMTC)

Michael is a registered architect and the owner and founder of M.Thrailkill.Architect LLC, a Portland-based architectural services consultancy providing specification writing, cost estimating, materials and product research, and document review to architecture firms that demand a high level of collaborative design interaction. Since its founding in 2015, the company has grown to over a dozen professional staff who are deeply committed to providing the highest quality resources and responsive consulting to architecture and interior design firms across the country.

During 30+ years of architectural project experience, Michael has been involved in all aspects of building planning and design practice, including assessments, programming, test-fits, designing, detailing, documentation, staff organization, project management, construction administration, specifying and estimating on projects in most U.S. regions and many other countries.

Prior to starting the company, Michael designed, specified and managed projects at architecture firms in Portland, New Haven and Miami, specializing in recreation, multi-family, civic, primary, secondary and higher education, institutional, commercial, corporate and government projects. He has travelled extensively supporting clients' projects in countries around the world.
